GGI Member Firms of the Year 2019

Three GGI member firms received the “GGI Member Firm of the Year Awards” at GGI’s World Conference in Marrakesh, Morocco. The firms were nominated by fellow GGI member firms and judged by a panel of individuals on GGI’s Executive Committee and Executive Management team. The awards acknowledge innovation, achievement, and strategy in members’ business sectors, honouring firms that display extraordinary progress and vision within their industries. To select winners, the panel assesses each nominee along a rigorous set of criteria, including reliability, professionalism, response behaviour, reputation, and client services.

We are very pleased to present the three winners of the GGI Member Firm of the Year Awards 2019 in alphabetical order, by company name.

FPS (Germany)

“It is a great honour to be awarded ‘GGI Member Firm of the Year 2019’ and, on behalf of our management and all our staff, I would like to thank the entire alliance, the judging panel and of course our GGI colleagues for nominating us as one of the Members of the Year,” says Robin Fritz, who attended the GGI World Conference in Marrakesh and collected the award on behalf of FPS. “We very much appreciate the support and trust placed in us, as the award reflects virtues such as reliability, professionalism, outstanding commitment and client services. All these are qualities and merits which we encounter every day with our esteemed GGI colleagues and the reason why we joined this highly professional alliance many years ago. We are proud to be part of the GGI family and we had wonderful experiences in conducting business with GGI colleagues – both in providing services to their clients and they in delivering outstanding advice to our clients. We look forward to continue providing outstanding professional advice across the globe with our esteemed colleagues in the future.”

Funaro & Co., PC (USA)

“We at Funaro & Co., PC feel graced and honoured to receive the GGI Member Firm of the Year 2019 Award. There are few instances more humbling than recognition by one’s peers. To stand among GGI’s 605 members has been a privilege unto itself. Our decision to join GGI on 01 July 2012 was anchored in a belief we share with GGI:

trans-global relationships matter. Funaro’s certified public accounting practice, in existence for 72 years, is headquartered in New York City but also operates from Miami, Florida, in addition to Milan and Rome in Italy. We service clients originating from Europe, South America, Asia, Australia, and offshore island nations and territories.

Along with GGI and its capable management and membership, our emphasis shall remain on assisting cross-border understanding, bolstering transactions between the businesses and individuals of different countries, while fostering relationships that travel beyond national boundaries.

GGI members have helped make international trade a seamless frontier. Placing the needs of our client base into the hands of GGI firms improved our reputation in domestic markets. The friendships that emerged inside of GGI have been the ultimate dash of serendipity. Grazie Lei! Thank you!"
